Message from Clare Adamson MSP Success of St. Patrick's RC Church Fayre

That the Parliament congratulates St. Patrick's RC Church in Shieldmuir, Wishaw, on the remarkable success of its recent fayre, acknowledges the significant efforts made by both parishioners and volunteers from the wider community who came together to organise and run the event; understands that the fayre raised an impressive total of £14,693.84 which, it believes, is a testament to the generosity and community spirit of those involved; further understands that these funds will play a crucial role in supporting both the church's initiatives and wider community activities; commends everyone who contributed their time, energy and donations to make the event such a tremendous success, and wishes them all the best for the future.
